TSSAG announces new member

The Securities Services Advisory Group (TSSAG) today announces its newest member – Taurus Consulting, headed by industry veteran Jessica Hynes.

Paul Chapman, Secretary of TSSAG said “I have known Jessica for many years and am delighted that she has chosen to join our organisation. She brings a wealth of knowledge of the securities services industry and a unique perspective on many areas and clients that are driving industry change today. Her expertise will be of great benefit to our members”.

Jessica said “I’m excited to be joining an organisation with such a global reach and extensive knowledge base. I look forward to collaborating with my fellow members on cutting edge issues that are driving the securities servicing industry.”

Taurus Management Consulting services complex asset owners who require specialist advice on asset servicing. They support clients needing advice on fund administration, fund consolidation and securities lending. Their clients include governments and corporates in Europe and the Middle East.

The Securities Services Advisory Group (TSSAG), headquartered in the UK, has been formed as a member-based trade association, effective August 2020. It is a network of independent firms around the world, distinguished in their areas of practice, deep knowledge and proven local and global expertise in the Securities Services Industry.
