TSSAG announces new Asian member

The Securities Services Advisory Group (TSSAG) today announces its newest member – Suneet Luthra, formerly Senior Management of JPMorgan in Asia.

Viraj Kulkarni, CEO of TSSAG said “I have known Suneet for over two decades and am delighted that he has chosen to join our organization. He brings a wealth of knowledge of the securities services industry both in APAC as well as further afield and an excellent network of relevant contacts which will be of great benefit to his fellow TSSAG members around the world.”

Suneet said, “Access to the TSSAG membership, which is both extensive and highly experienced in the post-trade world, was very attractive to me. I look forward to sharing my thoughts and expertise with them from the start, for the mutual benefit of our industry and ourselves”.

Suneet is an independent Consultant based in Hong Kong and offers consulting services on Securities Services Custody, Market development, Fund Accounting and FX related requirements. He partners with clients drawing on his over 30 years’ experience as a funds and securities expert offering excellent understanding of custody and clearing practices, cash and foreign exchange related aspects in APAC.

He held senior management positions at Price Waterhouse, Morgan Stanley and JPMorgan, covering Operational, Agent Relationship Management, Market Management, Program Management, Product Management and Development roles. In addition, he led several major business transformational and cross functional projects.
